

THE TRUST: The Trust is a non-profit making educational charity, governed by a Declaration of Trust. Its Objects are: "to advance the education of the public in the study of and research into family history, genealogy, heraldry and local history through one-name studies generally, but in particular with reference to all persons having the surname of Halsted, and to promote the preservation, security and publication of the useful results of such research".

ITS TRUSTEES: Its five Trustees are Alec Tritton, Derek Palgrave FSG, Else Churchill, Geoff Riggs, and Geoffrey Stone FSG. They are very experienced in family history and in the management of organisations that include the Federation of Family History Societies, the Guild of One-Name Studies, and the Society of Genealogists.

ITS ORIGINS: The Trust is funded by a gift generously made by Mrs Lewis-Jones, the widow of the late Mr Raymond Lewis-Jones. He had carried out extensive research into the surnames Halsted and Halstead during his lifetime, and wished this to be preserved and continued after his death. As a result of the gift, the Trustees are able to carry out those wishes, with the help of the Trust's Research Director John Hanson FSG. Most of the information collected by Ray has now been collated.

RESEARCH ENQUIRIES: The research is still ongoing, and answering queries on any significant scale is not envisaged until the current phases of the Trust's work have been completed. However, data is already being made available online on a progressive basis. The One-Name Study Narratives that have been compiled and are currently online can be viewed on the separate web site maintained at <http://www.halstedresearch.org.uk/>.

GENERAL ENQUIRIES: Enquiries regarding the Trust itself should be addressed to its Secretary, Sandra Turner, either by post to The Secretary, The Halsted Trust, Box H, 14 Charterhouse Buildings, Goswell Road, London EC1M 7BA, UK, or by Email to secretary@halsted.org.uk.

SEMINAR ENQUIRIES: Enquiries regarding the Seminar at Ruishton should be addressed to: Sandra Turner, 2 St Annes Close, Winchester, Hampshire SO22 4LQ.

ONE-NAME STUDIES: A one-name study is the study of a particular surname, which researches and documents all persons bearing that surname, as distinct from researching all the ancestors or descendants of one person. A study can be confined to a country, or sometimes to a state, province or UK county, but surnames registered with the Guild of One-Name Studies are researched and documented on a worldwide basis. The surname HALSTED and its variants were originally registered with the Guild by Mr Lewis-Jones in 1994 and subsequently transferred to Mrs Lewis-Jones. Registration of the surnames has now been transferred to a trustee of The Halsted Trust.

Every year, The Halsted Trust holds an educational seminar on one-name studies. This year the seminar is aimed at those beyond the first flush of research and who are looking to extend their research. It will be of interest to all family historians and specifically those looking to extend or start a one-name study. There will be a charge for this seminar of £7.50 per person which will include a buffet lunch and refreshments.

In the morning, Derek Palgrave will give an insight into the different types of memorials, monuments and gravestones and the information that can be obtained from them, whereas John Hurley will be giving warnings about relying on indexes & even the original records. Lastly, Else Churchill will be rummaging in the Parish Chest for sources other than certificates and census returns.

After lunch John Hanson will introduce the art of researching abroad from your armchair and, finally, Alec Tritton will introduce the 1832 Anatomy Act and the gory profession of bodysnatching rife up until the Act was passed.

Please use the form on the left to book. The venue is just off the M5, its Post Code is TA3 5JD, and a map with directions for getting there by car or public transport can be found on the Seminars Page of the Trust's website at <http://www.halsted.org.uk/Seminar2011>
